WHAT PACO RECOMMENDS...

D. O. C. Priorat

The remote rocky hills of the Priorat region are the birthplace of intense and minerals that gives the character that many red wine writers and collectors consider to be Spain's most "Elite Wines"

Ferrer Bobet is the result of a passion for the world and culture of wine of two friends, Sergi Ferrer-Salat and Raül Bobet are the reflects of their commitment to the economic and social development of Priorat. Their project was started in 2002, and in 2008 their first two wines were released. For their initial wines, Ferrer Bobet have used hundred-year-old Carignane and Grenache vines planted on some of the best vineyards in Priorat.*

These vineyards have an exceptional slate soil, locally known as "llicorella", and a topography characterized by steep slopes and high elevations that guarantee optimal ripening and ideal night/day temperature fluctuations, fundamental for preserving flavors and acidity.

2015 Cellers de Scala Dei - "Prior" 70
(Grenache, Cabernet Sauvignon, Carignan & Syrah)

Prior is an expressive and fine wine with intense notes of red fruit, strong tannins and hints of spicy aromas of pepper. This Priorat is well structured and full bodied.

Attractive ruby colour with garnet and violet tones.

2013 Castell d'Encús Costers del Segre - "Taleia" (Sauvignon Blanc) 90

"The unusual blend of Sauvignon Blanc with a little Semillon called '14 Taleia was designed to be something like a cold vintage Sancerre. It is produced from vines planted on chalky soils. The palate is savory with a unique precision that shows minerality.

2013 Castell d'Encús Costers del Segre - "Quest" 100
(Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot & Merlot)

Part fermented in granite lagares which winemaker Raul Bobet has crafted out of the local rocks, the wine is exuberant and with a pit-cherry freshness, behind which the Cabernets kick in, the Franc adding forest floor notes, the Sauvignon depth and structure Silky and seductive, the wine finishes with a very elegant notes.

WINE LIST RED

Vega-Sicilia Continued.

- 2013 Allon-Vega Sicilla (Tempranillo) 165
Allon is a smooth and elegant wine with pleasant barnyard, eucalyptus, spices, tobacco hints that give a very well crafted structure.
- 2011 Vega-Sicilia, "Valbuena No. 5", (Tempranillo) 260
Fantastic, fleshy with fresh exotic sweet red fruit, leather and slight farmyard funk. Darker on the palate with hints of clove and violet alongside dark plum and damson fruit with a long coating finish.
- 2007 Vega-Sicilia "Unico" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo) 620
*"This harmonious red is balanced and deep, offering ripe plum and currant flavors, with black pepper, tobacco, licorice and mineral accents.
Delivers plenty of structure, with well-integrated tannins and lively acidity.*
- 2004 Vega-Sicilia "Unico" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo) 650
*The wine remains graceful through the long, spicy finish. Drink now through 2027."
It has complex notes of tobacco, cedar wood, blackberries. It shows very good balance between power and elegance as well as perfect ripeness.*
- 2002 Vega-Sicilia "Unico" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo) 675
Remarkable and pure fresh cherry fruit, with a hint of clove, liquorice, tea, truffle, sous bois, wonderfully dense, with tingling acidity perfectly cutting the huge flavours, leading into a seemingly endless finish.
- 2005 Vega-Sicilia "Unico" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo) 700
This Unico spent six years in French and American oak. Aromas of truffle and forest floor intrude a warm palate of red berry fruits, lifted by a tangerine acidity and a fine mineral finish.
- 2007 Vega-Sicilia "Unico 1.5 Magnum" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo) 1400
Prevalent in the aromas are the notes of toasty wood, a result of its evolution during his years in cask. The dominant palate includes ripe plum, currant, flavors of tobacco and mineral accents.

D.O.C. Rioja

Along the Ebro River, the region is practically divided in three. Rioja Alta which has a great deal of rainfall and a mild climate. Rioja Baja which is hotter and more arid. Last but not least the Rioja Alavesa home to some of Spain's finest red wines.

2012 Bodegas Muriel "Fincas de la Villa" (Tempranillo) 48

This 100% tempranillo wine is a ruby red color with good intensity. The palate is round elegant and velvety, showing finesse and a long satisfying finish. The grapes are carefully selected from Rioja Alavesa and Rioja Alta vineyards.

(Tempranillo, Mazuelo, Graciano & Garnacha)

2009 Bodegas Muga "Muga Reserva Unfiltered 1.5 Lt" 110

(Tempranillo, Mazuelo, Graciano & Garnacha)

"Juicy and expressive", this lively red shows coffee and licorice notes that frame black cherry and currant flavors. The tannins are a bit chewy but resolve gracefully on the fruity finish.

2010 Bodegas Roda "Roda Reserva" (Tempranillo, Garnacha & Graciano) 80

Generous dark berries followed up with some herbality and cedar wood on the palate. It has a good structure with medium acid and medium tannins. Shows a long, fresh, full and juicy finish.

2010 Bodegas Loa "Loa" (Tempranillo) 80

*"Intense currant, baked fruit, toasty cedar, pencil lead, smoke and vanilla bouquet"
Fresh, intense and woody palate offering a rich, ripe entry, sumptuous syrupy fruit lifted by balsamic and very well-handled tannins. Classy Rioja!*

2009 Cune "Contino Reserva" (Tempranillo, Graciano, Mazuelo & Garnacha Tinta) 90

A classic Rioja that's elegant and refined, with lovely perfumed aromas of ripe red fruits with hints of cedar and leather. Medium-bodied, velvety texture, super balanced with well-integrated oak & fine tannins.

D.O.C. Rioja

- 2011 Bodegas Muga "Selección Especial" (Tempranillo, Mazuelo, Graciano & Garnacha) 90
This is one of those vintages which is great to drink from the start without detracting in the least its potential for laying down for the future. These wines amaze you with their great freshness of their "Atlantic" features interwoven with the mature "Mediterranean" character.
- 2010 Cune "Imperial Gran Reserva" (Tempranillo) 110
Red fruit and plenty of spices (nutmeg), the palate shows great acidity and abundant tannins that need resolving with time in bottle. Quite concentrated for the vintage, offering sweet red and dark berry flavors firmed by a spine of minerality.
- 1994 Bodegas Urbina "Gran Reserva 1994" (Tempranillo, Graciano, Mazuelo) 120
Medium ruby colored with a lovely bouquet of cherry blossom and earth notes. The palate is multifaceted, elegant, concentrated, impeccably balanced, and holding strong. The mouthfeel is silky and creamy with a very long and full finish. A splendid old vintage.
- 2006 Bodegas Muga "Prado Enea Gran Reserva" (Tempranillo) 120
It has an unashamedly opulent bouquet of primal, ripe, boysenberry, mulberry, dark chocolate and crushed violets that blossom with aeration that create a full-bodied wine with a well focus intensity finish.
- 2007 Marques de Murrieta "Castillo Ygay Gran Reserva" (Tempranillo & Mazuelo) 130
Grapes coming from La Plana vineyard with vines over 80 years old. Dark ruby colour with purple highlights. Mix of black cherry and black mulberry fruit with lots of black pepper notes, leather and wet leaves with rich, supple, velvety and very classy.
- 2008 Bodegas Roda "Roda I Reserva" (Tempranillo) 130
Bold Rioja with cassis, plums, berries, tannic backbone of wood, cedar. Burnt Caramel, leather, slightly on the palate with a very interesting profile. Amazing finish with beautiful acidity.
- 2005 Bodegas Roda, "Roda I Reserva" (Tempranillo) 150
Excellent balance of red fruits with cherries tending darker, with some smokiness with a decent complexity, showing red fruit, summer flowers, earthy taste on the palate with a full bodied, round as a fine wine, melted tannins and long finish.

D.O.C. Rioja

2005 Bodegas Ontañón "Ontañón Reserva" 1.5 Lt (Tempranillo & Graciano) 150

This wine is a dark and inky red with an intense nose. Smokey notes frame a core of plum and cherry with accents of tobacco, minerals, and earth. Maturing gracefully, this wine has well integrated tannins and ample acidity that give way to a spicy finish.

2010 Bodegas Roda "Cirsion" (Tempranillo) 350

Selection of best bunches of the harvest coming from different parcels of old vines.

Deep, inky ruby with purple highlight, initial notes of milk chocolate with a sweet kick on the palate, full, round and so supple with a strong velvety tannins.

D. O. Navarra

Navarra, northern Spain, is one of the most important wine-producing zones in the entire Iberian Peninsula. Navarra shares a role in the history of Wine Making.

2012 Tandem Valle de Yerri "Macula" (Cabernet Sauvignon & Merlot) 70

This Navarra wine is very complex in the nose with smoky toasty hints.

Also has a great chocolate, cassis and balsamic notes on the palate.

That expresses the soils of the Yerri valley.

VEGA-SICILIA

SELECCIÓN RESERVA ESPECIAL "UNICO"

Unico Reserva Especial is the wine with the most personality, not only boasting Unico's complexity, but magnifying it through several vintages to offer an immense aromatic range and pure elegance, timelessly floating through the magic of a legend. Only the best vintages are used to produce Unico Reserva Especial, a marriage of vintages, virtue, experiences and feelings serving only to bring to life the deepest essence of a unique and unrepeatable style, the Vega-Sicilia style
